

GSWW 304 Morte Point

This 100 metre stretch of SWCP is on the north side of Morte Point going down a steep slope. The original path was very rocky in places and walkers had taken a number of short cuts to avoid the path causing erosion problems. The path has been rock drilled off in places and edges dug off to provide a more defined path and resurfaced with shillet.

Before Photos:

After photos:

